MSM: What's a typical day in the life of Porschla Kidd?
 PK: My days are extremely long and stressful! I wake up with my eyes closed, and early every morning when it's traditional lunch, school, and I spend my time when I can.

MSM: What agency are you signed with and describe some of the most notable campaigns you have worked with?
 PK: My mother agency is Front Management in Miami and I recently signed with Ford in NYC. The most notable job I've ever done was not a campaign but a Chanel commercial. The clothes were so wonderful and fun! It was great to be on a high level and when the clothes were ready finished and we got a lot of clients. I don't talk to the models except the photographer. It just happened to be a great bunch of people that worked very well.

MSM: Any exciting campaigns in the works that are excited about looking out for?
 PK: Modeling is something I've always enjoyed doing, but recently I've taken a break to my family life and I'm just now getting back into it. I'm just now getting back into it. I'm just now getting back into it.
